

FORTRESSES AND CASTLES IN THE MARCHE REGION

There are numerous castles and palaces in the Marche that host initiatives, exhibitions or permanent museums:

the Torrione di Cagli is home to a Contemporary Sculpture Center (works by E. Mattiacci, J. Kounellis, H. Nagasawa etc.);

the Rocca di Sassocorvaro hosts the Ark of Art created to remember the rescue of 10,000 works of art during the Second World War;

the Rocca di Gradara preserves Renaissance pictorial cycles;

a Weapons Museum is set up in Mondavio.

Urbino hosts the National Gallery of the Marche;

a technical-scientific museum has been set up in Palazzo Brancaleoni in Piobbico;

in Senigallia the Rocca Roveresca hosts a permanent exhibition on the Della Rovere family;

the Medieval Festivals take place in the Rocca di Offagna;

the Rancia Castle in Tolentino hosts temporary exhibitions;

the Rocca di Acquaviva Picena is the scene of the Palio del Duca and houses the Multimedia Museum "La Fortezza nel Tempo" in the keep;

the Rocca di Urbisaglia contains a Weapons Museum;

Castel di Luco is currently private property of the Amici family, open to the public.

